the sacred heart is as simeon prophesied of jesus himself signum cui contradicetur like the title of his blessed mother who is in very truth mother of god it has drawn to itself all the assaults of heresy for it is a divine test of faith in the mystery of the word made flesh ut revelentur ex multis cordibus cogitationes those who have trusted with a yearning hope that the faith of englishmen in the incarnation at least was firm and clear were saddened and silenced when the pilgrimage to paray le monial elicited from some of the highest sources of the established religion a profession of simple nestorianism it was then that the first fifty pages in this book were published having been out of print for some time they are now reprinted as the doctrinal foundation of all that follows the devotion of the sacred heart has two aspects the one as the centre of all dogma the other as the source of the deepest devotion in this latter aspect it reveals to us the personal love of our divine redeemer towards each and every one for whom he died it is a manifestation of his pity tenderness compassion and mercy to sinners and to penitents nevertheless its chief characteristic and its dominant note is his disappointment at the returns we make to him for his love and above all his divine displeasure at the faults and sins of those who are specially consecrated at his service he seems to be sadly upbraiding us with the three doubting questions which he put to peter lovest thou me and to be looking upon us as he turned and looked on him when he had thrice denied his master into this part of the devotion of the sacred heart i have not ventured it has already been treated so profusely by others and by many of whom i have only to learn it is in itself so deep and intimately related to the personal life and mind of each that i have always felt it better to use but few suggestive words rather than to draw out devotional acts which to the writer are no doubt spontaneous natural and real but to the reader may be a burden like saul s armour to david in the following pages therefore i have intentionally confined myself to the dogmatic side of the devotion and for the following reasons i believe firmly that when divine truth is fully and duly apprehended it generates devotion that one cause of shallowness in the spiritual life is a superficial apprehension of the dogma of the incarnation and that one divine purpose in the institution and diffusion of the devotion of the sacred heart in these last times is to reawaken in the minds of men the consciousness of their personal relation to a divine master he has foretold the dimness and coldness of these latter days the son of man when he cometh shall he find think you faith on the earth s luke xviii 8 because iniquity hath abounded the charity of many shall grow cold s matt xxiv 12 in that day the disciples of the sacred heart at least will know whom they have believed a vibrant critical exchange between contemporary art and christianity is being increasingly prompted by an expanding programme of art installations and commissions for ecclesiastical spaces rather than religious art reflecting christian ideology current practices frequently initiate projects that question the values and traditions of the host space or present objects and events that challenge its visual conventions in the light of these developments this book asks what conditions are favourable to enhancing and expanding the possibilities of church based art and how can these conditions be addressed what viable language or strategies can be formulated to understand and analyse art s role within the church focusing on concepts drawn from anthropology comparative religion art theory theology and philosophy this book formulates a lexicon of terms built around the notion of encounter in order to review the effective uses and experience of contemporary art in churches the author concludes with the prognosis that art for the church has reached a critical and decisive phase in its history testing the assumption that contemporary art should be a taken for granted element of modern church life art and the church a fractious embrace uniquely combines conceptual analysis critical case studies and practical application in a rigorous and inventive manner dealing specifically with contemporary art of the past twenty five years and the most recent developments in the church s policies for the arts interfaith as a faith a way to move past preaching about love and compassion to actually practicing them a commitment to interfaith is no small commitment nor is it an easy commitment but i do believe it can be a rewarding and healing one interfaith widens our world and if we let it interfaith frees us from the imprisoning shackles of one of the most debilitating of all human emotions fear of the other from chapter 6 the interfaith movement is taking root more and more of us are exploring it at the same time interfaith finds itself at a crossroads where do we go now rev steven greenbaum not only suggests the faith of interfaith as a positive way forward but also offers a practical down to earth approach to a more spiritually fulfilling life in this accessible how to guide greenbaum addresses what it means to practice interfaith as a faith and why you might want to embrace it why you can choose interfaith as a faith and still keep your own spiritual tradition how to establish the necessary foundations to start an interfaith spiritual community how to choose the right minister for your interfaith community what you can expect as your community forms and grows and much much more along with offering resources such as interfaith liturgy and guides to interfaith church governance he includes the voices of members of the living interfaith church the community he founded to share their whys and hows of participating in an interfaith church
